Introduction

Safeguarding children must be a priority for our school and incorporating safeguarding measures in the recruitment process, at the same rigorous level no matter what the posts within the school, is an essential part of that.

(NCSL, 2006)

Aims and Objectives

- To set out our philosophy of safer recruitment.
- To ensure that the recruitment of staff is done equitably and robustly.
- To ensure that there is a rigorous process of vetting for appointments.
- To ensure that the safety of children is at the heart of all appointments to the school.

The Process

- Recruitment advertising must contain a safer recruitment statement.
- The Job description must be clear.
- The person specification must include child protection duties.
- A minimum of two written references must be taken up before interview. If a candidate is not currently working with children but has done so in the past then an additional reference may be required.
- The interview process is conducted by at least two senior members of staff, at least one of whom has been trained in safe recruitment practices.

- Gathering information and carrying out checks on a candidate is followed in every case.
 - The candidate's suitability to work with children is explored at interview.
 - An assessment will be made of every post as to the degree of (un)supervised access to children and the key skills required
- Appointments will only be confirmed after all checks have been completed satisfactorily.
 - All new staff will receive induction, training and a mentor.
 - Opportunities will be provided during the induction process to recognise any concerns or issues of or about new members of staff at the outset and act upon them immediately.

Inviting applicants

- All adverts should carry a statement on the School's policy towards safeguarding children and the requirements for DBS checks.
- Information packs to candidates should also include the safer recruitment policy.
- It will be made clear to candidate that only LA completed application forms will be accepted (not CV's).
- It will be made clear to candidates that as part of the interview process, questions about safeguarding children will be asked.
- Any gaps in a candidates application form will be explored, this will include: incomplete forms and gaps in work history.
- Candidates must bring a form of ID to the interview and certificates to the interview which must be original documents.
- Two references must be taken up prior to interview. One must be the current, or more recent, employer.
- If recruiting from overseas, a confirmation from overseas will be required
- Any discrepancies in the application will be followed up by phoning the referees.
- If concerns continue, then advice will be sought from the LA.
- Providing false information will result in: the application being rejected, summary dismissal if the applicant has been selected, referral to the teacher's misconduct team or police, informing the LA, informing other School's where necessary.
- When requesting references the referee will be asked about the candidate's suitability for working with children using the LA agreed reference request form.
- During the interview process, open ended questions will be used to explore the candidate's suitability for the post. Questions will also be asked about the candidate's attitude towards child protection requesting examples of incidents from the candidate's history rather than hypothetical incidents.
- The interview panel will apply the same procedures to all candidates.
- The interview panel will meet before hand to analyse and review all the information about the candidates and formulate questions. The interview panel will not apply the same questions rigidly to all candidates but will ask further probing questions if required. Notes will be taken of all answers candidates give.
- No interviews will take place over the telephone.
- Candidates will be asked during the interview if they are a firm candidate for the post.
- Candidates must apply online for a DBS , which must come back clear, before commencing employment.

Conclusion

“...careful recruitment of staff is the first step to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children in education”

Our school is committed to equality, and to making fair and equitable treatment an integral part of the work of the school. Action will be taken to identify and eliminate all forms of discriminatory practices which act as barriers to achieving this objective.

All arrangements for, and the implementation of, all recruitment and selection activities will comply with sex, sexual orientation, transgender race, religion, rehabilitation of offenders, disability and age anti-discriminatory legislation.

All those participating in recruitment and selection activities are expected to make judgements and exercise discretion. Judgements and choices should be made within the parameters of the information provided within the “Recruitment and Selection Guide for Schools and Colleges” to appoint individuals whose skills, behaviours and competencies are best matched to the duties of the post, in order to deliver the highest quality education to children and young people within the school.

It is essential that you:

- read and retain this statement; and
- complete and return the attached form to the recruiting school with your application form.

The school and Newcastle City Council are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

The post you are applying for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. To be considered for this employment, you must disclose details of any non protected convictions, cautions, warnings or reprimands you may have. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) website (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-filtering-guidance>).

We therefore ask you to complete this form as fully as possible and return it with your application. The only people who will see the information you give us will be those directly involved in the recruitment process. All information will be handled in accordance with our Code of Practice on the Disclosure of Criminal Convictions. At interview, or in a separate discussion, we will ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position.

If you are successful at interview, we will require you to make an application to the DBS to obtain an Enhanced Certificate of Disclosure and barred list check. If you are currently employed by Newcastle City Council and have obtained an Enhanced Disclosure with Newcastle City Council within the last 3 years, it may not be necessary to apply for another Disclosure. If you are subscribed to the DBS online update service, then your DBS certificate may be 'portable' between employers and organisations provided it is at the right level and for the right workforce.

To speed up the appointment process, please inform us of your registration status. If you are registered, we need your permission to use the online update service for the purposes of obtaining an up to date DBS certificate check should you be offered an appointment. We also ask for your permission that a recheck can be made during your relevant employment if required by any legal, safeguarding or regulatory body.

If you have worked or have been a resident outside of the UK within the last 5 years, you must provide a certificate of good conduct or a copy of your criminal record for the period of time which you were abroad. Your appointment is subject to this check and it is important that you keep Employee Services informed of the progress you make in obtaining this document.

To obtain either a certificate of good conduct or a copy of your criminal record, you must contact the UK based embassy of the country in which you worked or lived. You can find out more information on how to get an overseas check on the website www.homeoffice.gov.uk/DBS

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offence(s). The DBS has a code of practice, which we fully comply with. If you want a copy of the code, please contact the Employee Services team on 0191 211 6675.

We ensure that anyone making appointment decisions has the necessary information, guidance and support to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of any offences.

If you are invited for interview, we shall assess:

issues relation to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people including:

- your motivation to work with children and young people;
- your ability to form and maintain appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people;
- your emotional resilience in working with challenging behaviours; and
- your attitude to the use of authority and maintaining discipline.

If you are offered the post, we shall ask for evidence of:

- your identity; and
- your qualifications (including any relevant professional registration).

We shall also check:

- that you are medically fit to undertake the role.

References:

We shall also take up detailed references from your current and previous employers. If you are currently working with children, on either a paid or voluntary basis, your current or previous employer will be asked about disciplinary offences relating to children, including any in which the penalty is time expired. We will also ask if you have been the subject of any child protection concerns and if so, the outcome of any enquiry or disciplinary procedure.

False Information

Please note that providing false information is an offence and could result in your application being rejected or your dismissal from employment if you are appointed. The matter may also be referred to the police.

Guidance Notes

This template is designed to help schools plan a recruitment exercise and sets out an example timeline for a typical external recruitment process. The plan will help the appointments panel and recruitment administrator plan the key actions needed during the recruitment process and who is responsible for these.

People who need to be involved in the recruitment process:

It is important to determine at the planning stage of the recruitment exercise which governors and staff need to be involved. This must include the person(s) to whom governors have formally delegated responsibility for making appointment decisions. This can be one or more governors, the head teacher or one or more governors and the head teacher together.

This person(s) has responsibility for making the decision about which candidate to appoint and ensuring that all required pre-employment checks are taken up and are judged to be satisfactory. This responsibility cannot be delegated to anyone else.

The interview panel may also include:

- the line manager of the post;
- any other relevant manager; and
- any specialist advisers who might be involved, for example Human Resources officers, Local Authority school improvement advisers, external partners or officers from the diocese.

It is also important to identify at the planning stage someone who will be responsible for the administration of the recruitment exercise, for example sending out application forms, interview letters, taking up references, checking documentation and organising pre-employment checks.

Timescales

Deciding the timescales for the recruitment process at an early stage allow dates to be booked into diaries and relevant venues to be confirmed. Including planned interview dates in adverts or application packs is good practice so that applicants are aware of these at an early stage and can make appropriate plans.

When planning the recruitment process it is good practice to consider the notice periods of the candidates you are likely to appoint:

- Teachers can only resign from the posts with effect from 31 August, 31 December or 30 April and must give 2 months' notice in the Autumn and Spring Terms and 3 months' notice in the Summer Term;
- Head Teachers resign with effect from the same dates but must give 3 months' notice in the Autumn and Spring Terms and 4 months' notice in the Summer term;
- The arrangements for support staff will depend on the notice periods set by their current employer but they can usually resign at any point in the year. Support staff in Newcastle City Council have to give one month's notice or six weeks' notice if they are paid on a Principal Officer grade.
